

Highland Happenings August 2018

For more information on regularly scheduled activities / Bible studies please read the listing of ministries in the "Overview of Ministries" section. If you have the shortened version, refer to the complete newsletter online.

Marathon Free Sale: Highland attenders and members of the community are invited to the Free Sale on Saturday, August 11, from 8:00 am – 12:00 pm at the Marathon campus (800 River Road, Marathon City). This is both an outside and inside event, so please dress for the weather. Everything is FREE! If you take something you cannot use, please give it away to someone else for FREE.

Before the Throne: A Worship Gathering: Friday, August 17, at 6:30 pm, at the Wausau campus. Pastor Jeff Weiss and the HCC Worship Ministry invite you to this special evening event of extended worship of our great God. We will worship the Lord together as we "walk through" the life of Jesus, to bring glory to the Father.

3rd Monday Worship Service: Join us on August 20. The sermon is entitled I am the True Vine. In John 15, we are reminded that we do not have the power to cultivate spiritual growth and godly character on our own. Those things are only found in a life that is fighting to be constantly abiding in Christ. Join us, as we dive deeper into John 15 to answer the question: What does it mean to abide in Christ? The night opens up at 6:00 pm with our full-service espresso bar making made-to-order drinks. The worship service officially kicks off at 6:30 pm and lasts for about one hour. This is a great service to invite co-workers, family members, or friends to come along with you.

Centershot Archery: This fall, we will hold a nine-week session for people trying Centershot for the first time. It will be held on Thursday evenings (6:30 – 8:00 pm), from September 13 through November 8. Children and youth, 3rd grade and up, are eligible to participate. There is no cost; materials and equipment are provided. If interested, register by contacting Kris Schumacher at 715-675-3686 or ktschuma@uwalumni.com. Soon information will be available about other sessions including: a Weston fall session, Wausau winter competition session, and a Marathon spring session. The winter and spring sessions will be open to returning participants.

Marathon & Weston Baptism Services: Come worship the Lord together in a special service on August 5 (Marathon campus) and August 12 (Weston campus) immediately following the worship service. Please plan to attend to encourage those that have made the choice to make this public declaration of their faith.

DivorceCare Group: Going through a separation or divorce? The next 13-week session starts Monday, September 10, and meets from 6:30—8:00 pm in room C14 at the Wausau campus. Topics include a special Surviving the Holidays night. Cost: $20 for the book; scholarships are available. For more information, contact Ken or Alisa Landry at AHenkensgang@aol.com or 715-297-4012.

Adult Co-Ed Bible Studies

The Book of James: True faith produces fruit. A faith without action and without life change is ultimately a dead faith. The book of James speaks to the realities of a living faith in Jesus—the kind of roll-up-your-sleeves and get-your-hands-dirty discipleship that is borne out of an authentic relationship with the risen Lord. James writes to believers who know suffering, who've faced trials, and who ultimately desire a deep relationship with God. Study led by Pastors Jeff Hinds, Dan MacDonald, Sam DeLoye, Isaiah DeMoss, Andrew Gutberlet, and Brian Whitaker. Begins October 3, (1st & 3rd Wednesdays), from 6:30 – 7:15 am in room B11/12 (Wausau campus). For more information, contact Pastor Isaiah at idemoss@highlandcommunitychurch.com.

Spiritual Warfare Series—Wausau Campus: In this timely, unique exploration of spiritual warfare, Dr. Tony Evans unveils a simple yet radical truth: every struggle and conflict faced in the physical realm has its root in the spiritual realm. The key to experiencing and living out on earth the victory that God has already secured in heaven, is to learn how to intentionally and effectively do battle in the spiritual realm. With passion and clarity, Dr. Evans demystifies spiritual warfare so that listeners can tackle challenges and obstacles with spiritual power—God's authority. Begins Thursday, September 6, at 6:30 pm, in room B4. Led by Tom Krause.

Lord Change My Attitude—Marathon Campus: It's not about your struggles. It's not about your circumstances. It's not about your relationships. It's about your attitude. In this study, James MacDonald reveals just how much our attitudes affect our lives. Drawing on the experience of the Israelites' journey from Egypt into the wilderness, he shows how bad attitudes rob us of joy and wholeness. If you're ready for a serious, inside-out attitude adjustment, there is no better place to start than this: "Lord, change my attitude...before it's too late." Begins Wednesday, September 12, from 6:30 – 8:00 pm, in room 1. Led by Tom Krause.

Marathon Adult Sunday Classes:

Christian Beliefs: Dale Sturm, Tom Krause, and Pastor Brian Whitaker will lead us in learning how to study Scripture to help answer fundamental questions such as: What is the Bible? What is creation? What is God like?

What is the atonement? What will happen when Christ returns? Starts Sunday, September 9, at 9:20 am.

Wausau Adult Sunday Classes:

Classes start Sunday, September 9, at 9:20 am.

Mission Minded Class: What in the world is God doing? We’ll hear from some of our church-supported missionaries (including Mitch Cooper on September 9!) and learn some of the ways God is at work all around the world. Guest speakers will address questions like these: What’s it like growing up as a missionary kid? What value comes from a short-term mission trip? What do HCC pastors do when they go train other pastors? Various speakers; room B5.

Book of Ephesians: The book of Ephesians equips believers to thrive in a world that hates the message of Jesus Christ. Paul the Apostle writes to encourage believers to live well; we’ve been lifted from the graveyard of sin and called to shout the gospel into the darkened world. Led by Elgin Hushbeck; room B3.

Romans: This study will be a group discussion using Inductive Bible Study methods. It will include the Sovereignty of God and the text that fueled the Reformation and how these truths should impact saints today. There will be three to four discussion questions from the week’s text. Led by Jerre Wright; room B4.

Women’s Only Sunday School—Habits of Grace: See the description and online registration details under the Women’s Ministry heading.

Weston Adult Sunday Classes:

Classes start Sunday, September 9, at 9:20 am.

6 Rules Every Man Must Break: What if by breaking six specific rules, you could throw off the shackles of other people's expectations and pursue a more authentic and liberating faith? Finally Free: Fighting Purity with the Power of Grace: If you have struggled personally against the powerful draw of pornography, or if you have ever tried to help someone fighting this battle, you know how hard it is to break free. But real freedom isn't found by trying harder to change. Nor is it found in a particular method or program. Only Jesus Christ has the power to free people from the enslaving power of pornography. Monday Evening at the Wausau Campus: A Harmony of the Gospels by Thomas and Gundry: The central person of Christianity is Jesus Christ. The bulk of what we know about Him is found in the four gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. An indispensable step toward a better understanding of the four books is to harmonize (bring together) the separate accounts so as to assemble as many details as possible into a chronological sequence. A Harmony of the Gospels allows us to study the separate accounts/passages at the same time. Led by Gretchen Christenson. This 17-week study will be held from September 10 – February 25, from 6:15 – 7:45 pm in room B11/12. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you. Cost: $22. Childcare not provided.

Monday Evening at the Weston Campus: Your Sacred Yes by Susie Larson: Are you worn out from life's ought-to's and should-do's? It's so easy to give our time away. We commit to something because it's a good cause or there's a great need. Or maybe because no one else will help out. The result? The days blur together and we find ourselves overworked and under-joyed, desperate for a faith awakening. In this practical and liberating book, Susie shares Biblical ways to: learn how—and when—to say no without guilt or shame, find a pace and perspective that matches God's best for you, and discern man-made obligations from God-given invitations. Led by Sue MacDonald. Class meets September 10 – October 22, from 6:00 – 7:30 pm in room 4. Cost: $11. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you. Childcare not provided.

Tuesday Morning in Merrill: Hoping for Something Better: Refusing to Settle for Life as Usual by Nancy Guthrie. Do you ever wrestle with a nagging sense of disappointment...that life isn't what you thought it would be...that you aren't who you wanted to be...that faith seems more complicated than it should be? Do you find yourself longing for...something better? As Nancy Guthrie shows in this journey through the book of Hebrews, there is something better. There's something better than superficial spirituality, better than meaningless ritual, better than a life bound by shame and regret. That something better is within your grasp. This study meets September 11 – December 11, from 9:00 – 11:00 am at the home of Laurie Jensen (N205 Riverview Avenue, Merrill). For more information, contact Cheryl Wright (715-536-1290) or Laurie Jensen (715-573-3459). Cost: $12.00. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you. Childcare not provided.

Tuesday Evening in Merrill: A Young Women's Bible Study (Women in Their 20s & 30s): The Uncommon Woman by Susie Larson: Imagine yourself in a pool of strong swimmers, all swimming clockwise. You, a Christian woman, are swimming counter-clockwise... counter-cultural, if you will. This book is for the woman who longs to rise up out of the stereotypical behavior of gossip, insecurity, pettiness, and small dreams. She has an unfulfilled desire to be someone who goes against the grain of the common for the sole purpose of living a life with conviction. The woman who reads this book is ready to believe in her deep value, ready to accept her high calling, and ready to make a difference in a world in need of her influence. Go ahead, swim against the stream to become The Uncommon Woman. Led by Jean Ann Nelessen. Meets on the 2nd & 4th Tuesday, September 11 through April 23, from 6:30 – 8:00 pm. The study will meet at the home of Jean Ann Nelessen (N366 Lake Road, Merrill). Cost: $14. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you. Childcare not provided.

Wednesday Mornings at the Wausau Campus – Kick-off to Bible Study: Register online for the class you want and then plan to join us for a potluck brunch and fellowship on September 5, from 9:00 – 11:00 am, at the Wausau campus. Last names beginning with M-Z, please bring a main dish.

Attention Moms: Childcare is offered for infants – 4 years concurrent with the Wednesday morning Women's Bible studies. Pre-registration for childcare is required; sign-up online as you register for your Bible study class. If there is a waiting list for childcare, you will be notified via email. Childcare cost is due the first day of class. Scholarships are available for those needing assistance. The cost is $40 for one child; $50 for two children; $60 for three children or more.

Wednesday Morning – Intimate Issues by Linda Dillow and Lorraine Pintus: The enemy continues to do all that he can to destroy marriages and the intimate relationship between a husband and wife. The messages from our world are also filled with falsehoods and misinformation leading to struggles and conflict within marriages. This class will study the book, Intimate Issues, as well as dig into God's Word to reclaim the area of sexual intimacy as a beautiful gift designed by God for a husband and wife. We will also explore the God-designed differences between men and women, marriage, roles, communication, and love languages. This is an 11-week course, meeting every Wednesday, September 12 through November 28, from 9:00 – 11:00 am. Class will consist of large group teaching / discussion and small group time. Outside reading, homework, and consistent class attendance is a priority. Childcare is available with registration. Class size will be limited to 28 and participants must be married. Led by Karen Vandenberg and team. Cost: $15 for book and binder. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you.

Wednesday Morning – Acts 1 (Chapters 1-12): This is the time to know the character of God, the power of salvation, and the inspiration of His Holy Spirit. This is a study of the first twelve chapters of the Book of Acts. This is an exciting historical book which lays the meaning of salvation and foundations of Christian doctrine while recounting the flow of the spread of Christianity from its explosive beginning in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost to the ends of the known world. This class is geared for a first time Bible student and will give you the skills for life-long learning from the Bible. Together, we will explore how to thoroughly observe each passage, accurately interpret its meaning, and then consistently apply it directly to our own lives. More experienced learners will benefit from opportunities for deeper research, especially regarding interpretation methods. You will be equipped to go as deep as you want, at your own pace. We will share insights and applications with each other in class and in small group time. There is no workbook, and no DVD, but we will provide the Biblical text in a format that will facilitate note taking. There will be optional homework, as the Spirit leads you. Cost: $5.00 to cover printing. Led by Susan Messerly. Register online by August 23 please.

Women's Sunday School Class at the Wausau Campus: Habits of Grace: Enjoying Jesus through the Spiritual Disciplines: Three seemingly unremarkable principles shape and strengthen the Christian life: listening to God's voice, speaking to Him in prayer, and joining together with His people as the church. Though often viewed as normal and routine, the everyday "habits of grace" we cultivate give us access to these God-designed channels through which His love and power flow—including the greatest joy of all: knowing and enjoying Jesus. This study will be practical and applicable as we look, learn, and live, and as we share our "habits." Cost: $13. Led by various women teachers. Starts September 9. Register online by August 23 to have a book ordered for you. Childcare is available.

OVERVIEW OF MINISTRIES

A listing of regularly scheduled activities, services, and ministries of Highland

New To Highland

Welcome! At Highland we want to help you take the next step in your relationship with Christ. Whether you are exploring church for the first time, returning after many years, or are a long-time Christ follower new to the community, we would like to help you take your next step. CONNECT: We encourage you to get involved in our Highland community. This could be a social group, a Bible study group, men's group, women's group, Care Group, or more. GROW: Attend an informal newcomer reception (offered a couple times per year); attend our Orientation Class (offered a couple times per year); and/or attend one of our many adult studies. GO: We have found that serving in the church and in the community helps people take the next step in ways that GROW and CONNECT alone just can't do.
